Insurance

Sudbury Pet Dog Training Club pays an annual premium for the proper level of insurance required to cover third party liability for any accident to members on club premises. Unless Sudbury Pet Dog Training club can be proved negligent, this insurance does NOT cover dogs who sustain injury caused by another dog or handler whilst on club premises.

In accordance with our Membership and Rule Book we ask that members ensure they have proper pet insurance to cover third party liability which could arise should their dog hurt another dog, handler or trainer or sustain injury by a third party.

Sudbury Pet Dog Training Club strongly recommends members to take out a separate pet insurance policy. However, sometimes pet insurance is included as part of your household insurance and members may wish to check if this cover is available and to what extent their pet is covered.
